Two-Year Residency Requirement

All incoming first-year students from outside SDSU’s local admission area are required to live on campus during their first and second year at the university.

Additionally, all local students in the Weber Honors College are required to live on campus during their first year.

SDSU recognizes that exceptions to the residency requirement may be warranted in certain circumstances and may be requested.

Students who are in SDSU’s local admission area are not required to live on campus but are encouraged to apply.

WHY ARE STUDENTS REQUIRED TO LIVE ON CAMPUS?

SDSU’s residency requirement is in alignment with the California State University Graduation Initiative of 2025 to improve student academic success, retention and graduation rates.

National and local statistics show that students who live on campus enjoy an increased sense of community and campus connectedness, are better prepared academically and graduate at faster rates than those who do not.

Our focus is to help first-year students living in the residential communities transition to the college environment. Aside from the benefits of convenience and camaraderie, on-campus living offers important academic benefits to ensure your transition to college is successful. These benefits include live-in faculty and staff support, STAR (academic resource) Centers and Residential Learning Communities.

Our focus for sophomores living in the residential communities is to help keep you on track for a timely graduation and prepare you for life after SDSU. Through our signature Sophomore QUEST programming, you will learn leadership and independent living skills, participate in academic and career planning, and prepare for study abroad, internships and undergraduate research opportunities.

ARE YOU IN SDSU’S LOCAL ADMISSION AREA?

YOU ARE IN THE LOCAL ADMISSION AREA IF YOU WILL GRADUATE FROM A HIGH SCHOOL IN SAN DIEGO COUNTY LOCATED SOUTH OF STATE ROUTE 56 AND EXTENDING EASTWARD OR IF YOU WILL GRADUATE FROM A HIGH SCHOOL IN IMPERIAL COUNTY.

COMPARING STUDENTS WHO LIVE OFF CAMPUS, THOSE WHO LIVE ON CAMPUS:

Your Living Space

Living on campus may be your first experience living away from home. Making the move to university life will be a lifestyle change, but it will also be rewarding and memorable. We are here to ensure your transition is a positive one so that you may succeed both personally and academically at SDSU.

For your first year, we offer traditional and suite-style residence halls. In a traditional-style hall, residents share a communal bathroom, whereas in a suite-style hall, residents have a bathroom in their room.

The residence halls have co-ed floors and feature a variety of community spaces, such as kitchens, lounges, outdoor recreation areas and on-site laundry.

A majority of rooms are triple occupancy, meaning you will likely have two roommates. However, a limited number of single, double and quad-occupancy rooms are also available.

For your sophomore year, we offer apartment and suite-style living communities. In an apartment-style community, residents have a kitchen, living area and bathroom(s) in their unit. In suite-style communities, residents have a private bathroom(s) in their suite, and certain buildings also include a kitchenette and living area.

The apartments and suites feature a variety of community spaces and on-site laundry. The rooms are single, double or triple occupancy, and units range from one to seven bedrooms.

DID YOU KNOW? WE PROVIDE A SAFE, INCLUSIVE AND SUPPORTIVE EXPERIENCE FOR ALL STUDENTS. WE OFFER GENDER-INCLUSIVE HOUSING, HOUSING OVER UNIVERSITY BREAKS AND WE ASSIST WITH OTHER ACCOMMODATIONS TO MEET STUDENT NEEDS.

*S Floor plans and furniture may vary by unit.
Assignments

Our goal is to provide you with a positive living experience and maximize your potential for successful roommate relationships. For your first year, you will be assigned to a building and room according to the interests indicated on your housing application and room availability. You will be matched with a compatible roommate(s), based on your responses to the lifestyle questions in the housing application – or you may request a specific roommate(s).

THE RESIDENT ADVISERS AND COMMUNITY ASSISTANTS PUT ON VARIOUS PROGRAMS FOR COMMUNITY BUILDING SO IT’S EASY TO MAKE FRIENDS. WHEN I WALK AROUND CAMPUSS I SEE SO MANY FAMILIAR FACES. THIS MAKES SDSU FEEL LIKE HOME.

Residential Education Staff

At SDSU, there are many professional staff members and student leaders who are available to assist you while you are living on campus. The primary purpose of the residential staff is to promote a positive living-learning atmosphere that stimulates your ability to succeed socially and academically. The following staff members are housed in our residential communities:

RESIDENCE HALL COORDINATORS: The residence hall coordinators are full-time, master’s level professionals who are responsible for ensuring your living environment is safe, comfortable, inclusive and conducive to your success. Residence hall coordinators also supervise student leaders, manage the day-to-day activities of the community and coordinate hall activities and programs.

RESIDENT ADVISERS/COMMUNITY ASSISTANTS: The resident advisers and community assistants are student leaders who live on each floor and are available to assist you with academic, social and personal needs. Resident advisers are based in our first-year communities, whereas community assistants are based in our second-year communities. Resident advisers and community assistants are responsible for facilitating community building, resolving conflicts and maintaining university policy.

SCHOLARS-IN-RESIDENCE: The scholars-in-residence serve as liaisons between SDSU faculty and students. These SDSU faculty members live in apartments located within the campus residential communities. They work closely and cooperatively with the residential staff. Together, they develop academic communities that meet your needs by encouraging your intellectual stimulation and academic success.

GENERAL ADVISER & RETENTION SPECIALISTS: The general adviser and retention specialists are full-time, coordinated care advisers for students living in our residential communities. They provide academic advising and retention programs for students and manage our academic resource spaces, the STAR Centers.

ASSISTANT COORDINATORS: The assistant coordinators are full-time and graduate student team members who assist the residence hall coordinator in overall community management and manage front desk operations. They also serve as advisers for the hall/community councils.

I WOULD NEVER BE IN THE POSITION I AM TODAY IF IT WEREN’T FOR ON-CAMPUS HOUSING. THE FRIENDS I HAVE MADE AND THE OPPORTUNITIES I HAVE BEEN GIVEN HAVE TRULY MADE MY COLLEGE EXPERIENCE WORTHWHILE.

MEAL PLANS

As a first-year student living on campus, you will be required to have a meal plan. We offer three different meal plans to accommodate your needs, providing you the flexibility to eat when and where you want.

A meal plan will not be required for your sophomore year living on campus. However, meal plans are available for sophomore and upper-division residents.

You will have the opportunity to select your meal plan on the housing application and can change your meal plan during three designated meal plan change periods throughout the academic year.

To learn more about meal plans, visit eatatsdsu.com.

I love how the meal plans are very inclusive and accommodating to those with dietary restrictions. Almost every restaurant has a vegan option for me and there is such a wide variety of locations and cuisines across campus.
