If you graduated from a high school located outside SDSU’s local admission area*, you are required to live on campus your freshman and sophomore years and must complete the sophomore housing lottery process.

The purpose of the sophomore housing lottery is to assign first-year students (rising sophomores) to the sophomore residential communities. The sophomore housing lottery is a two-stage process. During the first stage (Feb 3–28), you may log into the Housing Portal and review your license agreement term length, search and confirm roommates, and opt into a meal plan. During the second stage (March–April), you will receive a randomly assigned lottery date and time for which you will be able to select from available rooms on the Housing Portal.

As the sophomore housing lottery is based on availability during the assigned lottery date and time, specific room types and buildings cannot be guaranteed. Students are strongly encouraged to be familiar with all sophomore residential communities to inform their selection from what is available during their designated lottery date and time.

*Students are in the local admission area if they graduated from a high school in San Diego County located south of state Route 56 and extending eastward, or a high school in Imperial County.

SOPHOMORE QUEST

All sophomore residential communities offer Sophomore QUEST programming that consists of workshops and high-impact learning opportunities designed specifically for second-year students. Sophomore QUEST programming will give you an opportunity to create plans for degree completion, study abroad, undergraduate research, internships, healthy living, financial and credit management, and other programs that will contribute to your success. The best part is that Sophomore QUEST programming takes place at the convenience of your residential community.
